CONCLUSION OF THE FESTIVAL

A Week of Festivity Is Brought to a Successful Close.

Prizes Awarded to the Various Exhibitors at the Auditorium in the Fruit, Flower, Vegetable, Fancy Work, Art and Other Departments.

Yesterday closed an eventful week for Houston and to witness the closing scene of the Festival both the Auditorium and city hall were crowded all day yesterday and up to a late our last night by people to take a farewell look at one of the prettiest and most attractive exhibitions ever attempted in Houston, the success of which has already led to making it a permanent affair,

Auditorium, and a specially fine one in point of weather, no excuse could have been auccessfully advanced for a small attendance, and accordingly the people came out in good numbers, many of whom had been too busy with other things to attend earlier, including large numbers of school children.

The vegetables and fruits, with a little care and sprinkling of water, have retained a comparatively fresh appearance, and the exhibits are almost as good as on the openvery successful in disposing of a very large portion of their exhibits and will not have half the quantity to return home us they brought on the opening day. Mr. Prepared of Galveston, whose submitted collection of palms and ferns have been as tinued up to a late hour and the testivities at the Auditorium concluded at it o clock extensively admired, will have comparatively nothing to return to Galveston, and feels more than satisfied with the success and profit be her achieved.

It was a day of general congratulation and rejoicing; no one seemed disappointed and no word of failure could be heard. The committees on awards were cloistered to themselves the entire day engaged in compiling the list of prizes and prize winners to be turned over to Manager Chitdress, then to be made efficially public by

There are yet some features among the exhibits deserving of detailed mention, especially these appearing on the balence. Lieutenant Alfred Drew has a splendid among the natives, showing the utensits (W Williams, Clear Crock, Texas (mention) and dress of the comparatively said savage trons of the present day. There is the Navalo blanket, the beared game tag the piner or peace, the dangerous looking formalayse, the home mode modernies the complete arrangement of feathered head-gast the buckskin quiver for arrows, and several beaded sechiaces and Indian 1978.

This exhibit is nevery arranged in the textile department, and man it is the ency Japanese corner arranged by Mrs. H. P. Ring and Mrs. Hills Beaned by Mrs. H. P. Ring and Mrs. Hills Beaned by Mrs. H. P. Ring and Mrs. Hills Beaned as a feature in ornamentation peculiar to that people. There is the damash covered cough, even which hangs a very large hambee and paper umbrella, and on its headic a very large haloon shaped lamiers. The cough over which hangs a very large hambee and paper umbrella, and on its headic a very large haloon shaped lamiers. The cough over which hangs a very large hambee and paper umbrella, and on its headic a very large haloon shaped lamiers. The cough over the cough have an inhorouse, finishes of a asset that would be a typical representation of the interior of a Japanese home.

The numerous valuation of the interior of a Japanese home.

The numerous exhibit of very fine quilts some of allk and satin, some in crasy multitudinous patches, are most attractive at this account of the year when they are most needed. Some very pretty ornanosated brie a-brac is shown in form of large turtle shells, already cleaned and variethed, and lined inside with satin and ribbans. They are useful as baskets or cord rearries; pin cuchions, etc., and attract considerable atton. Continuity is respected that mames of exhibiting in the continuity of the con about, as many of them deserve special mention. The show cases, about ten in number, contain most of this display and were kindly leaned by Mistrot Bross

The Singer Sewing Machine company have a very representative exhibit of th in labor saving machines in seven varieties under the charge of Mr. H. H. Reeves, and In a large show case embroiderics and drawn work is exhibited in thirteen patterns, being done entirely by these machines. The artistic has been brought so thoroughly prominent in machine work that same people skilled in that class of workmanship can take your picture while you wait, using entirely the sewing machine for the work.

In the art department is some very fine band painted china in all shapes, being the work of Mrs. H. P. Mactiregor and others, whose names were not shown in the amateur oil painting the exhibitors. have scored a decided success, among whom creditable mention may be made to Mrs. J. J. McKeever, Mrs. Jennie Randolph, Mrs. J. W. Cunningham of Palestine and Mrs. T. G. Beard, an old pupil of Professor L. L. Cohen, who exhibits a magnificent landscape scene.

Miss Jennie Hunter exhibits a collection of very beautiful work, crayon and water colors, and the paintings of Mrs. O. J. Morel, Mrs. E. R. Cherry and some others. whose names could not be learned, d serve special mention. Mrs. Charles Stewart has wery striking effect in oil of the historic character, Charlotte Corday, and Profes-sor L. L. Cohen has some exquisite portrait work and fruit scenes that sustain his reputation as an artist and teacher, but ing a professional, was not clussed in competition with others.

The admirable work in photography by Mesers. Blackburne & Bailey, Houston artists, deserve special mention, some of their work standing out in bold-like appearance, making them truly natural. In the most making them truly natural, in the most modern styles and types which they are executed. They have about thirly frames of these choice pictures, which fills an eutire exhibitor's section to the exclusion of any other kind of art.

The tobacco department continues a chief. attraction of the ground floor, and a large number of persons have registered their names there, among them some of the distinguished visitors who have graced the occasion, and opposite their names made
